Memorial Church Planned For Future

Regents Authorized That Memorial Gifts Be Used for Building

This Action Was Retroactive to Include $7,263.36 Sent As Memorials in Past 10 Years

TO PURCHASE BONDS

As Money Accumulates It Will Be Invested in War Bonds

Elsewhere in The Messenger, in an account of the meeting of the Board of Regents at Barium Springs in May, is a paragraph regarding the action of the governing board in setting aside memorial gifts of ten years and future such contributions in a special fund that one day will be utilized in building a church at Barium Springs.

This action is so far-reaching and of such wide interest that it was felt advisable that an elaboration upon this action by the Board should be given to those hundreds of friends, organizations and business firms who have participated in a memorial total of $7,263.36 in the past 10 years.

At the meeting of the Regents last October a special committee was appointed to bring in a recommendation to the Board when it assembled in May, for the plan of honoring friends and loved ones had grown with such rapidity in recent years that it was the thought that a definite project for such donations would be of great comfort to the donors and to the survivors of those honored.

Accordingly, the following recommendation was presented to the Board this month and was adopted:

"The special committee on memorials recommends that:

"First. The Board of Regents authorize the setting aside of memorial gifts which have been received at Barium Springs during the past ten years - a total sum of $7,263.36 - this fund to become part of a fund to build a memorial building.

"Second. That all future memorial gifts not otherwise designated be placed in this memorial fund.

"Third. That this memorial building be a church at Barium Springs.

"Fourth. That a Book of Memory be placed in the building including all names of donors and those memorialized."

This action by the Regents af-

Good News

Fairview Sunday School, which is in Concord Presbytery and near Lenoir, has joined almost 300 Sunday Schools in the North Carolina Synod in a systematic plan of helping in the support of the children at Barium Springs. This Sunday School inaugurated the plan of sending the fifth Sunday responses and the first one arrived after March 30th. Welcome to that ever-increasing group that does something regularly.

The Hamlet Presbyterian Church has put the Home in its budget for 1942-1943 for $120.00, and the April check for $10.00 has already arrived. This is $68.30 more than came reguarly in 1941-1942 from the church budget, a class in the Sunday School and the Auxiliary combined. Officials are encouraged by this action.

Tri-State Conference In April Is Featured by Large Attendance

165 Were Enrolled From 38 Institutions In Eight States Despite Tire Shortage

DR. JAMISON HONORED

Only Living Charter Member of Conference Presented Desk Set.

With 165 representatives from 38 child-caring institutions in eight states and three state departments represented, the 37th annual Tri-State Orphanage Conference held one of its greatest and best meetings at Barium Springs April 21-23. A great part of the three days was devoted to informal discussions of problems arising in all homes, and the workers returned to their respective fields of work with more enthusiasm and a greater knowledge of how to meet some of the particular problems.

Officers for 1942-1943 are Samual Smith, assistant superintendent of Connie Maxwell, Greenwood, S. C., president; O. V. Woosley, superintendent of Children's Home, Winston-Salem, vice-president, and Miss Kate Bullock, of Columbia S. C., a member of the Child's Welfare Division of South Carolina, as Secretary. The Methodist Children's Home of Decatur, Ga. was selected as the place of the meeting next spring.

A high-light of the conference was a special presentation of a desk set to Dr. A. T. Jamison, who has been head of Connie Maxwell for 42 years and who is the only living member of the originally organized Tri-State conference of 37 years ago. Dr. Jamison has also attended every session of the organization. The set was presented in behalf of the members attending the April conference. Dr. Jamison was deeply touched by this recognition of his faithfulness and his leadership.

The two outside speakers for the conference were Dr. John R. Cunningham, president of Davidson College, and Dr. J. R. McGregor, of Burlington, president of the Board of Regents of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home.

Dr. Cunningham emphasized four essential steps in the life and character of each individual that must be safeguarded to avoid human beings being reduced to relative unimportance. He named these to be a sense of Christian vocation, a right relationship to people, a devotion to a cause greater than one's self, and an awareness of the Fatherhood of God.

Dr. McGregor's address centered around the thought that the function of an Orphans' Home is spiritual, and that each Home is essentially conducted to make Christians. The Board president admitted that school, farming, carpentering, plumbing, printing, athletics and other things have their place in the life of a Home but he said that "when any of these things are allowed to play first fiddle in the thought of the children and the public, the Home must suffer and attitudes change in Board members."

The 17 North Carolina institutions represented were Alexander Home, Charlotte; Appalachian School, Penland; Mills Home, Thomasville; Children's Home, Winston-Salem; Children's Home (Junior Order), Lexington; Colored Orphanage of North Carolina, Oxford; Christian Orphanage, Elon; Eleida Home, Asheville; Free Will Baptist Orphanage, Middlesex; Kennedy Home, Kinston; Methodist Orphanage, Raleigh; Mountain Orphanage, Black Mountain; Presbyterian Orphans'

Grammar School Gave Entertaining Program

An entertaining and well-planned program by the grammar grades of the Barium Springs' school was presented on April 17th as the first event of the 1942 graduating exercises. The first and second grades presented "Little Black Sambo" as an operetta in three acts and the third through the seventh grade offered a stirring patriotic pageant "America's Stand for Freedom," which was colorful in presentation and thrilling to the appreciative spectators which were unusually large in numbers.

"Little Black Sambo" was complete throughout with crocodiles, tigers, elephants, giraffes, birds, negro children and all of the other appurtenances to the fascinating children's story. Richard Huddleston played the part of Sambo, Betty McMannen was Mumbo and Bobby McMannen, was Jumbo. So realistic were some of the "animals" that a few of the children in the audience audibly expressed concern about little Sambo when the tigers were approaching Sambo, only to be pacified by taking his clothes, his shoes and his umbrella.

The second part of the program was a beautiful pageant with the patriotic colors of red, white and blue predominating. Elizabeth Langley was the statue of liberty, "America" was represented by Maggie Katon and "Uncle Sam" was portrayed by Herbert Good. Detachments of soldiers, sailors, marines, the air corps, girl scouts. Red Cross nurses and home nurses presented themselves and offered their services to America. There was a band made up of third and fourth grade pupils and an attractive number by red, white and blue waltzers.

In addition to the fighting forces, the school teachers, artists, musicians, doctors, mechanics, farmers and shipbuilders all presented their services to Uncle Sam in winning the war. Representatives of England, China, Russia, Hawaii, Africa, Ireland, Hebrew, Dutch, Scotland, Spain and France all appeared attired in native costumes of their respective countries. The concluding number was the singing of the Star Spangled Banner by the assembled players and the audience. The statue of liberty's torch was lighted just before the end of the delightful program.

The cast of characters in "Little

Public Speaking Class Presents Annual Play

"Behind the News" was the name of a very interesting three-act play ably presented by the public speaking class of the Barium Springs high school on April 9th. This was under the direction of W. A. Hethcox, teacher of that subject in the local schools. The acting of the players was good, and what made it all the more interesting was intimate acquaintanceship with the boys and girls having a part in the play. The audience indicated its appreciation of some particularly good lines during the three acts.

The cast included Paul Horne, who was Elmer Scott a newcomer to town; Elwood Carter as Joe Hudson, an old-timer returned; Dick Parrish as Sam Barnett, the political boss; Jack Weeks, a colored boy known as Petunia Blossom, a humorous news-sniffer; Billy Lindsey as Tom Dugan, an officious constable; Ruth Cole played the part of Jane Cooper, owner of The Chronicle; Margaret Jarvis was Ruth Roberts, a friend of Jane's, and Sarah Parcell was Mrs. Small, a busybody.

Good Reports Made on Semi-Centennial to the Board of Regents

Many Notable and Outstanding Events of Past 12 Months Revealed at May Meeting

INCREASE IN VALUE

Gains Made in All Funds — Buildings Constructed — Special Gifts.

Gratifying and encouraging reports on the semi-centennial celebration of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home at Barium Springs were heard here on May 12th by the Board of Regents, in semi-annual session, from Jos. B. Johnston, superintendent of the Home, and Ernest Milton, treasurer. Mrs. George Norfleet, of Winston-Salem, as vice-president, presided over the sessions in the absence of Dr. J. R. McGregor, president.

In addition to receiving a review of the past year's achievements from the two administration officers, the Board set aside memorial contributions of the past ten years to be used in building a memorial church when the fund accumulates and when building conditions warrant it. This involves the setting aside of $7,263.36 for that period, with future memorial funds to be added. Goverment war bonds will be purchased with the current nucleus, and other bonds will be bought as the memorial fund accumulates each month.

Among the outstanding events of the past year cited by Mr. Johnston was the attendance of Synod here last September which set a new all-time peak in registration for that body; the serving of over 7,000 guests at the Home during the past 12 months; the ending of another year without a death in the Orphanage family to maintain a record of no deaths since 1933 and only one since July of 1926; the graduating of 41 students as the largest class in the history of the school at Barium, and an enrollment of 324 before graduation to be the largest population since March of 1932.

In addition to these things, a quadrangle of cottages were built and furnished for close to $54,000, and a printing office built for $6,000. Special contributions of $17,300 were made toward a proposed children's village and a $15,000 scholarship fund given during the semi-centennial period.

The treasurer's report showed that the contributions from the churches of North Carolina was the best since 1927-1928; that $48,447.28 was received in nine legacies and that the net worth of the home increased $111,810.91 in the past twelve months. This involved increases in the endowment, capital and operating funds.

The Board adopted a suggestion by Mr. Johnston that specific phases of the life at Barium Springs be presented at the next eight board meetings, so that the members might become more familiar with the detailed operation of the Home. He suggested the intake of children, health, school, religious life, outside departments, sport and recreation, conference studies, building and planning. The health of the children was named as the principle topic to be offered at the fall meeting.

Shortage of tires affected the attendance at the spring meeting of the Regents which usually finds 17 to 18 of the 20 members on hand. Thirteen were present in May. Besides Mrs. Norfleet, who presided, were A. P. Thorpe, Jr.,

News From the Cottages At Barium

HOWARD COTTAGE

This is the Howard Cottage girls back with you again this month. We sure have a lot to tell you.

We are having lots of peas to shell right lately, but we do not mind it. Later on it will be beans to string.

The girls that got show tickets for the last month of school were Ernestine Baldwin and Frances Rhyne.

We had six to make the honor roll for the last term. They were Mary Morgan, Vivian Jacumin, Ila Lee McBride, Kathleen Monroe, Ernestine Baldwin and Frances Adams.

We sure are proud of the ones who made perfect attendances. We hope that they keep on like they are now. They were Ila Lee McBride, Mary Morgan, Ernestine Baldwin, Vivian Jacumin, Kathleen Monroe, Frances Adams, Dorothy Shepherd, Nellie Isenhour, Helen Vinson, Ann Wicker, Melva Powell, Mable Pearson, Evelyn Coats, Aline Parham, Annie Star Langley, Helen Morgan, Joyce Katen, Callie Rhyne, Margaret Bullard, Gwendolyn Landrum, Mary Ruth Gregory, Grace Morgan, and Virginia Presnell.

Miss Burgess is on her vacation, and we know she is having a good time. We sure do miss her a lot.

Three of our girls are at the infirmary with measles and we hope that they will soon be up so they can have a good time like we are.

It will not be long before camp and we will be glad. We hope vacations will start soon. Most of the girls have to look forward to a vacation, but the ones that don't get a vacation get a camp.

Some of the girls have had visits from their people or some friends. Gwendoyln Landrum and Annie Star Langley had a visit from their mothers. Ernestine Baldwin had a visit from her sister.

Two of our girls had birthdays during this month. Dorothy Shepherd's was on the tenth and Hazel Walker's was on the eleventh. We hope that they will have many more happy ones.

LEES' COTTAGE

Since our last news we have lost 12 boys and 10 new ones have come to live with us. The newcomers are Tommy Rhyne, Charles Stevens, Charles Faircloth, Paul Dellinger, Norvin Hillard, Fred Feimster, John Bullard and Billy Dunn from Synod's Cottage, Ken Manus from Charlotte and Jerry Williams from Gastonia. They are all having a lot of fun in our cottage, working on the truck farm, and playing some, too.

The swimming pool is filling up today and everyone is anxious to try it out.

Plans for our camp on the river have been made, and we are going on the first one July 13th. The Howard girls are going with us.

We are having our Daily Vacation Bible School, and learning many interesting things.

Sunday afternoon Ernest Stricklin took us to the County Home and we sang some songs for the people who live there.

John Ellis, one of our old boys, visited us recently. He is in the Navy and is now stationed near Washington, D. C. We are proud of our Barium boys in the service.

We are having fresh vegetables from our truck farm. Some of the things are cabbage, lettuce, onions, greens and radishes. We are still having plenty of good apples to eat.

We enjoyed having the Tri-State Orphanage Conference meet with us.

We are glad to have Sarah Parcell for our matron when Miss Turner goes away.

BABY COTTAGE.
Second Floor.

The Baby Cottage girls are again bringing you the news of our happy days.

It has finally got hot enough for us to take off our shoes and the sand surely feels good to our feet.

We started going to Bible School Monday, and we have another week after this one. We like to go.

Last Tuesday afternoon we went to the show to see "Look Who's Laughing". We enjoyed it very much. Thank you, Daddy Johnston, for taking us.

Five of us got perfect attendance certificates during the past year. They are Jackie Porterfield, Peggy Ann Collins, Sylvia Sue Buie, Janie Smith and Lillie Bryant. We hope to have more than five next year.

We haven't had many visitors this month, but those among us who have had visits from their people are Louise and Barbara Bradshaw, Lois Dellinger, Lillie Bryant, and Janie Smith. Come again, all of you. We would like to have more people visit us.

"Mama" O'Kelly is taking part of her vacation this next week. She is going to Georgia to see her father. We hate to see her go but we will be glad to have "Aunt Frances" to take her place while she is away. Have a good time, Mama, and hurry back.

Our two big sisters, Lillie Bryant and Janie Smith, got some money at commencement for making the most improvement during the past year. Good work, girls, and keep it up.

For the last month in school we had three girls to make the honor roll. They were Sylvia Sue Buie, Jackie Porterfield, and Janie Smith.

It will not be long now before we will be going in swimming, because they are going to open the swimming pool next Monday. If it gets hot enough we will be going in. Come on out, Mr. Sun, do your work.

—The Baby Girls.

JOHNSTON COTTAGE

We all seem to be bachelors since graduation took a bunch of our blossoms from the Woman's Building and from the quadrangle, but I guess we will struggle along as we have in the past.

Woot Davis and Pleas Norman will challenge any other two boys that think they know how to play tennis here and abroad, so if you have not lost a game this year here is a good chance to win another.

Just in case you want to know all the little "angels" who live in the Johnston bungalo they are: Leslie Smith, Leland Rogers, Amos Hardy, Billy Everett, John Ammons, Herbert McMasters, Walter Zeigler, Wilbur Coats, Esau Davis, Raymond Good, Woot Davis, Howard Clark, Pleas Norman, and Housemother Ernest Stricklin.

Pleas Norman

WOMAN'S BUILDING.

During the past month many changes have taken place in our building. Twenty-one of our girls graduated nd found work or places shortly after commencement. This was the largest class that we have ever had. We were awfully proud of them and were glad that they had finished their work in school but hated to have them leave us.

Immediately after commencement we had the members of the Tri-State Orphanage Conference as our guests. We enjoyed them so much. It is always a pleasure for us to meet so many people and make friends with them.

We were afraid that there would be quite a let-down after such a big commencement but we have been too busy to be lonely for long. The Daily Vacation Bible School is just closing as we write the news. A number of our girls have been helping Miss Lucille Thompson, Miss Jean Murphy and Miss Wilhelm. The helpers are Marie Morgan, May Lynn Jones, Lillie Bryant, Janie Smith, Mary Alice Stevens, Edna Maples and Dixie Buie. The school has been very helpful to all who had a part in it.

We have already begun to plan for the camps to be held in July and August. This year there will be six camps instead of five. All vacations will be planned to make it possible for everyone to be back before the camp opens on July 13th. We are looking forward to this treat with much anticipation.

STULTZ COTTAGE

This news is coming from the same cottage but not from the same boys. This was the senior's cottage, and when they left, eight boys moved in here. They were Bobby Whittle, Paul Burney, Bennett Baldwin, James Shepherd, Bill Tyce, Paul Reid, Richard Shoaf, Marshall Norris, Donnie Bolton, and Joe Long. We like it fine.

Our swimming pool has opened and we expect to have a good time getting cooled off in it after working hours. We are also looking forward to swimming in the river at camp later.

Bill Tyce's mother came to visit him on Mother's Day. He was very glad to see her. We are always glad to have visitors and they are welcome at any time.

We have a new truck now and we are very proud of it. It is so new it does not have a bed on it and some of our boys who work on the carpenter's group will have to help build one.

One of our boys, Richard Shoaf, has just come back from the hospital where he had an operation for appendicitis. He has recovered quickly and is back with us now.

—Paul Reid.

THE DAIRY NEWS

The dairy is the same as it used to be only it's not the same boys. But they are just as good. We lost seven boys from the dairy this summer but I guess we can go on without them since we have so many boys coming on the dairy from Lee's cottage.

We have been putting away hay in the barns for about a week. We already have one barn full and we are putting hay in the other one now and should have it full in about a week.

Some of the boys are cleaning out the branch where the cows drink so that it will not get stopped up.

We have a few new cows and we are getting plenty of milk.

John Denton is one of our best workers, and a lot of the other boys that just came from Lee's cottage.

Eugene Dunn, one of our best milkers, went on the carpenter's group, and the rest of our big boys went on the farm, and are learning how to drive a horse.

Well, we still have a mighty good group on the dairy this year, so I guess we won't miss them much.

Well. so long, until next time when we will bring you more "Dairy News."

CANNON COTTAGE

Hello Folks,

We had some new boys to come over to our cottage. They are Robert Lee Pearson, Herman Blue, Scott Blue, Junior May, Bennie Gregory, Clifford Barefoot, William Allen, Horace Denton, Gene Dunn, Earl Allen, Mac Rogers, John Lee, Roscoe Smith.

Also, we have the college boys staying at our building. They are George Lewis, Gwyn Fletcher, Tom McCall and Jack McCall. We are mighty proud to have so many boys going to college this year and we wish them the best of luck.

Our swimming pool has just opened and we are looking forward to a good time in it this summer.

Vacations are about here. Many of us will not get vacations because of the war, but we will get to go to camp.

We are all feeling fine.

We are glad the government let us buy a new truck.

There will be some more boys to come over here at the end of the summer.

Until next month, goodbye.

—Earl Allen

RUMPLE HALL.

Here we are again writing to you to let you know the news for the month.

Our school is out, and we sure are having a grand time playing horseshoe and soft ball.

They are cleaning out the swimming pool and it will not be long now before we will all be going in swimming and boy, will we be glad!

Our Bible School has been going on now for a week and I believe we have a very good one this year. The head of it is Miss Lucille Thompson. We are all very glad to have her with us. Another one helping her is Miss Jean Murphy.

We all received our report cards from Mr. Calhoun not so long ago. We are proud to say that everyone over here made their grade, and we are all glad.

Three of our girls over here received scholarship prizes. They were Betty Joe Smith, Lucile Smith, and Maggie Katen.

That is all the news for this month.

—Helen Hawley

JENNIE GILMER.

Since writing you last we have had twelve boys to come over from Lee's Cottage to live. Thirteen of our boys have gone to the quadrangle to live.

The boys staying here now are Earl Adams, Billy Lybrand. Dallas Ammons, George Landrum, Curtis Baldwin, Johnny Meroney, Charles Barrett, Jack Mangum, Jack Clark, Harold Myatt, Jack Caldwell, Bill Price, John Denton, Donald Pettus, J. D. Everett, James Reid, Carl Ferguson, Thad Stevens, Herbert Good, Dwight Spencer, Jimmy Hayes, Edward Walker, Howard Hull, Grady Mundy, Ray Huddleston, Jerry Young, Jack Jones, Charles Campbell, and Johnny Ferguson.

We wish to thank all our friends who have sent money to buy our spring clothes. We are all very happy to have them.

The latest addition to our family is little Joseph Ralph Spencer, born March 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Spencer.

We have been very busy since school closed, building fence and spring cleaning at the dairy.

We have just cleaned the swimming pool. With camp and vacations, we are looking forward to a pleasant summer.

Howard Hull had a visit from his grandparents who live in Charlotte.

Our flower garden at the barn is doing nicely despite the dry weather. Visit us at the barn, and we will give each of you a bouquet.

BABY COTTAGE.
First Floor.

Here we are back again to bring you the news.

School was out Friday, April 17th, and the graduation exercises took place on the following Monday. We had the largest graduating class this year than ever before and all of them received a diploma.

Our school boys, Clyde Dellinger, Ed Traywick and Everette Vest were all promoted to the second grade and will soon be leaving us to go to Synod's to live.

Most of the teachers have gone now. We certainly do miss them but we hope they have a nice vacation.

Three of our boys, Johnny Collins, Boyce Dean Smith, and Billy Ennis, went to the birthday table in April and from what we heard them say, they had a pretty good dinner.

We had quite a few visitors last month. Johnny Collins had a visit from his mother. Clyde Dellinger had a visit from his father and sister, and Frankie and Boyce Dean Smith had a visit from their grandmother.

Now to tell you some of the things we have been doing since school has been out:

In the afternoon we play ball and build make-believe roads in the sand and dirt. We also like to climb the magnolia tree, but we are letting it rest for a while now, so the magnolias can bloom. We like to play with the squirrels that the big boys bring over, too.

A sparrow is building a nest on our front porch. We like to watch it bringing straw in her mouth for it.

Camp will soon be open; also the swimming pool. We will be glad.

Before we close we must not forget to thank "Uncle Joe" for the nice candy that be brought. We surely did enjoy it.

Be on the lookout for us next month. Until then, so long!

—Baby Cottage Boys.

SYNOD'S COTTAGE.

School is out and we are having a big time playing all day.

Forty-one of our boys and girls graduated this year. We surely do miss having them around.

Baseball is our favcrite game right now. Some of us play all day long.

The big boys were cleaning out the swimming pool today, getting it ready for the summer. We just can't wait to get in.

Charles Stevens went to Lee's Cottage Monday to make room for a little new boy named Alfred Williams. We like having Alfred stay with us. Some more of our boys are going to Lee's soon, and we are going to have some of the Baby Cottage boys come stay with us.

We have some little baby lambs up here now. They look so cute. We like to play with them when the boy brings the sheep to our place to graze.

—The Wigglers.

SYNOD	$7,125.00	$294.73	8.1c	105.3c

Last month's Messenger carried a bulletin announcement that the giving of Synod to the support fund of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home during 1941-1942 was the best since 1927-1928 - a fact which climaxed the celebration of the 50th birthday. The grand aggregate of regular and Thanksgiving responses was $96,143.88, which meant that the 91,309 members of the Synod had averaged slightly over $1.05 in their support of Barium Springs during the past 12 months. This was 4½ cents more per member than in 1940-1941.

Seven Presbyteries exceeded their 1940-1941 totals, while two were unable to measure up to their giving of the previous year. Fayetteville Presbytery led the pack with an increase of $1,203.69, followed by Mecklenburg, $1,012.-07; Granville, $970.33; Kings Mountain, $883.90; Wilmington, $774.90; Concord, $289.83, and Albemarle, $273.76. These gains aggregated $5,408.48, but Winston-Salem and Orange Presbyteries gave $505.81 and $357.15 less, respectively, for a combined decline of $862.96. The net increase for Synod was therefore $4,545.52 in the 12 months.

It is noteworthy here to point out that the totals for Fayetteville, Kings Mountain and Mecklenburg Presbyteries were the best since 1927-1928; Wilmington gave the largest since 1930-1931; Granville's liberality was the best since 1936-1937, and Albemarle and Concord had aggregates which were the best since 1939-1940. Orange Presbytery's figure was the lowest since 1938-1939, and Winston-Salem Presbytery hasn't had as small a total in the past 16 years as was given in 1941-1942.

Largest Average.

Concord Presbytery takes the topmost rank in 1941-1942 with the largest per capita average of any Presbytery. It was 140.2 cents per member. Concord displaces Winston-Salem Presbytery from the pinnacle post, and while this was being done, Kings Mountain Presbytery was showing a generosity that also put them ahead of Winston-Salem. Kings Mountain's members averaged $1.37, and Winston-Salem had to be content with third place with a 127.4 cents average.

Mecklenburg, Fayetteville and Wilmington Presbyteries occupied the same spots in the Presbytery rating that they had in 1940-1941, being in fourth, eighth and ninth slots, respectively. The other changes in the standing occurred when Orange Presbytery dropped two notches from fifth to seventh place. This enabled Albemarle to take the No. 5 berth over her sixth place of a year ago, and Granville placed sixth, instead of seventh at the close of 1940-1941.

Thanksgiving Offering.

Final figures for Thanksgiving of 1941 showed an increase of $676.49 over the 1940 Thanksgiving response. This did not quite measure up to an earlier prediction that the Thanksgiving sum would be in the neighborhood of a thousand dollars better than in 1940. Some expected reports did not come in in the closing months.

Concord Presbytery led the parade of increases made by seven Presbyteries in the Thanksgiving donations. Gains were noted as follows: Concord, $782.58; Granville, $652.94; Kings Mountain, $345.17; Wilmington, $192.52; Albemarle, $163.13; Fayetteville, $150.92, and Mecklenburg, $54.53. Orange Presbytery gave $1,342.89 less than in the 1940 Thanksgiving season, and the other decrease was in Winston-Salem with a decline of $322.41.

Final figures for the past two Thanksgiving seasons by Presbyteries is as follows:

Presbytery	1940 Final	1941 Final
Albemarle	$ 1,672.02	$1,835.15
Concord	9,720.94	10,503.52
Fayetteville	3,638.49	3,789.41
Granville	2,636.81	3,289.75
Kings Mountain	3,853.54	4,198.71
Mecklenburg	10,623.60	10,678.13
Orange	8,183.84	6,840.95
Wilmington	1,870.79	2,063.31
Winston-Salem	3.478.71	3,156.30
Synod	$45,678.74	$46,355.23

Income Distribution.

Regular month-by-month giving in 1941-1942 was unsually good, and it is noteworthy that the regular responses of the recently ended year were $3,433.42 more than the Thanksgiving Offering. In the majority of bygone years, the Thanksgiving responses have been over 50% of Barium's receipts, but in 1941-1942, the regular remembrances were 51.8% of the aggregate. and the Thanksgiving Offering was 48.2% of the total. This greater regular giving is in absolute accord with wishes of officials here, since the Thanksgiving donations arrive only once a year, while the other is scattered over a period of 12 months.

Of the regular total of $49,788.-65, the Sunday Schools sent 42.6% of it, or $21,225.46; Church budgets allotted $18,341.14, or 36.9%, and 20.5% came from the Auxiliaries, this being equivalent to $10,222.05. Each of the three main sources of regular receipts showed increases over last year. These were: Church budgets, $2,288.78; Sunday Schools, $841.62, and Auxiliaries, $738.63.

Below will be found the distribution of regular income by organizations in the nine Presbyteries:

Presbytery	Ch.	S.S.	Aux.
Albemarle	$ 471.39	$1,209.54	$1,116.57
Concord	2,866.15	3,592.56	1,113.10
Fayetteville	2,053.93	3,466.29	1,229.13
Granville	837.48	923.13	1,061.05
Kings Mountain	783.58	2,573.57	1,015.05
Mecklenburg	5,561.93	4,445.42	1,714.01
Orange	2,042.30	2,347.25	1,571.01
Wilmington	1,892.93	1,445.71	784.54
Winston-Salem	1,831.45	1,221.99	667.59
Total	$18,341.14	$21,225.46	$10,222.05

Number of Organizations.

A total of 913 organizations had a part in Barium's regular total last year, this being an increase of 24 organizations over 1940-1941. There were 341 church budgets that allotted some gift to the home, 296 Auxiliaries had a regular part, and 276 Sunday Schools gave an offering-per-month, the fifth Sunday responses or sent something special. Seven less Sunday Schools helped last year, while 27 more church budgets sent an appropriation and four more Auxiliaries helped regularly.

Here are the organizations helping, as they aligned themselves by Presbyteries:

Presbytery	Ch.	S.S.	Aux.
Albemarle	15	17	23
Concord	55	41	27
Fayetteville	53	57	61
Granville	20	12	22
Kings Mountain	25	27	25
Mecklenburg	68	44	57
Orange	46	35	30
Wilmington	37	34	37
Winston-Salem	22	8	14
	341	275	296

that time. Lieut. and Mrs. Parcell are residing in Charlotte. Fred Lowrance and Frank Purdy were Barium graduates in the wedding.

Shannon—Wise.

Miss Irene Shannon and Franklin Stuart Wise, both of Lexington, Va., were married in Bristol, Va. on January 23rd. Irene finished at Barium in 1935 and since that time has been working in Lexington, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Wise are at home in Lexington and their address is Box 637.

Stone—Summers.

Miss Joy Stone, of Statesville, and James Thomas Summers, a native of Statesville but now stationed at Philadelphia with the Naval Reserve, were married in the Methodist Church at Statesville on April 4th. Joy finished here in 1935 and has been working in Statesville ever since. Mr. and Mrs. Summers are living in Philadelphia. Mrs. Willard (Bernice Stone) Thompson was in the wedding and Lugene White, now a student at Flora Macdonald College, played the wedding music. The latter two are Barium graduates.

Freeman—Carroll.

George Cheek Freeman and Miss Cora Gertrude Carroll, both of Charlotte, were married in the Presbyterian Church at Cherryville on May 16th. Cheek finished at Barium in 1935 and has been working in Charlotte most of the time since his graduation. Mrs. Freeman is a native of Cherryville but has also been working in Charlotte. They are at home at 728 E. Tremont Ave., Charlotte.

Faison—Ramseur.

Mr. and Mrs. George Faison were at Barium Springs for commencement from their home in Newton. They were married the latter part of March or in early April. We wrote George for information, but have not heard from him. His wife was a Miss Ramseur of Newton, we believe. George left here in 1937 and is employed in Newton.

Memorial Church Planned

fords the donor a latitude in designating that for which his or her memorial gift is to be used, in case there is a particular preference, but unless otherwise specified these sums will be kept in a separate account. As soon as a sum accumulates to warrant the purchase of a government bond, this will be done. In anticipation of such action by the Board, all memorial gifts of 1942-1943 have gone into a special account, and well over $300.00 had been contributed in the new church year through the middle of the second month.

Favorable reaction has already occurred to this recent decision by the Board of Regents. One party sent a $50.00 check in memory of his wife three days after public announcement was made of what was going to be done, and while he did not say that this decision had inspired his donation, yet it was felt here that it was partially responsible for his honoring a dear one who died last summer. There seemed to have been a further upsurge in memorial donations, too, since the adoption of this recommendation and a public announcement of it.

Officials of the Home will be investing these funds in the Series F government bonds. A $100.00 bond will be purchased for $74.00, and interest is cumulative, the bond maturing in 12 years. The interest figures out at the rate of 2.53 per cent per year when the bond goes to maturity. Since the Home had a 10-year sum, plus the gifts of April and May, that amounted to over $7,400.00, it means that a government bond of maturity value of $10,000.00 will be purchased with $7,400.00.

The memorial plan has been in operation for considerably more than a decade, but in more recent years the plan seems to have grown in popularity at an exceedingly high rate. For instance, of the 10-year total of $7,263.36, $4,444.55 of that amount had been forwarded to Barium Springs in the past three years. Here is the record of memorial gifts:

Year	Amount
1932-1933	$ 78.00
1933-1934	158.00
1934-1935	332.40
1935-1936	308.50
1936-1937	487.05
1937-1938	754.65
1938-1939	700.21
1939-1940	1,034.70
1940-1941	1,592.75
1941-1942	1,817.10
Total	$7,263.36

The Book of Memory mentioned in the recommendation is already being maintained at Barium, for in the current book is the name of all contributors of memorial gifts in the past 10 years, as well as the names of those whose lives have been memorialized. Other names go in daily as this kind of gift is received at Barium Springs.

Whenever the new church is constructed at Barium Springs, the present building known as Little Joe's Church will remain on the campus as a chapel and will be used for prayer meeting, Young People's meetings and other religious activity. Little Joe's Church is simply a church auditorium that was built in 1907 when the population of the Home was less than 200. There are no Sunday School classrooms and the two school buildings on opposite ends of the campus have to be used on Sunday for the large number of classes.

BIRTHS.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Carson Clendenin announce the birth of a son, Ray Carson, Jr., in April. Mrs. Clendenin is the former Johnnie Burgin and both are graduates of Barium.
